

2nd BQC19 Users Forum: BQC19: A key infrastructure to support COVID-19 research across the lifespan

November 29, 2022 12:30 – 4:30 p.m. McGill University Health Centre Research Institute The Sylvia and Richard Cruess Amphitheatre, room ES1.1129 1001 boul. Décarie, Montreal and by videoconference
12:30	Welcome and participants' connexion
12:35	Opening remarks Louise Pilote , MUHC RI
12:45	Plenary session BQC19: We made it... and want to continue, together! Vincent Mooser , McGill University
1:10	The BQC19 Madeleine Durand , Centre hospitalier de l'Université de Montréal Co-director, BQC19
1:30	The BQC19 pediatric cohort Sze Man Tse , Centre hospitalier universitaire Sainte-Justine
1:50	A new web-based interface to interrogate BQC19 data David Bujold , McGill University
2:10	Break and networking
2:35	The BQC19 long COVID cohort Alain Piché , Université de Sherbrooke
3:00	A practical approach to working with the BQC19 multi-*omics datasets Antoine Soulé , McGill University
3:15	Discussion*
4:20	Closing remarks Simon Rousseau , MUHC RI Co-director, BQC19
4:30	Adjournment

*Questions can be asked in English or French